KAROL & GUY MONROE

MULTI-ACCREDITED BRIDGE INSTRUCTORS

ACBL CERTIFIED DIRECTORS

ACBL SAPPHIRE LIFE MASTERS

Karol and Guy Monroe are multi-accredited bridge instructors, ACBL certified directors, and are actively involved in teaching, promoting bridge education, and mentoring new and advancing players. The Monroes retired from the Seattle area in 2000 to the scenic Oregon Coast, and recently relocated full time to Palm Desert, California.

The Monroes enjoy frequent travel and present extensive bridge education programs for private groups and organizations throughout the United States. You will often find the Monroes on cruise ships worldwide, hosting both private groups and shipboard bridge education programs.

Guy and Karol are members of the ACBL Goodwill Committee, have held positions for the District 20 organization (Oregon, Southern Washington, Northern California, and Hawaii) and chaired the I/N New Player program at the 2010 North American Bridge Championship in Reno. The Monroes compete in tournaments nationwide and have achieved the esteemed ACBL ranking of Sapphire Life Master.

Karol and Guy enjoy and treasure the many new friends they have made while traveling and playing bridge, and invite you to share their enthusiasm and knowledge of this most intriguing card game.
